

Satellite Radio should not be prohibited from broadcasting any information that its subscribers want. Let the market determine what is desired by the listener not Washington.